THE SHRAPNEL MAKER.

Turn, turn, my lathe! Turn round and round!

The motors hum, the engines pound—
The god of War commands!
This piece of steel I now prepare
With art and skill and every care
Will like a blazing meteor flare,
In skies of foreign lands.

Turn, turn, my lathe! I fashion here A bolt with which some cannoneer His fellow men will slay. The steel is hard and smooth and chill; "Twill rip and tear and gash and kill, And many a pool of blood 'twill spill, In a not distant day.

New Vaudeville Attraction Today-Her Great Match, Five Reel Feature Picture with Gale Kane.

The vaudeville attraction for the last half of the week is The Southern Trio, who present a novel scenic sing-ing offering. This is conceded to be one of the best vocal acts in vaudeville and they carry all their own spe-cial scenery, with costumes in keep-ing with the act.

The feature photoplay today is the

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Tabloid Players in An Entirely New Bill and John Barrymore in "The Dictator" Today.

The Irish piece, Shaun's Farewell, an entirely different show from that presented the first half of the week, will be presented by the Tabloid Players with the popular comedian, Jim Doherty, in the leading role, assisted by Miss Agnese, Miss O'Hearn and a chorus of excellent singers and dancers. Many of the old familiar Irish songs will be sung, as well as several of the late popular song hits. Shaun's Farewell is a very funny piece, with a pretty little story running through it and promises to be even a bigger hit than the Scotch review which the Tabloid Players presented during the dirst three days of the week.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Artist's Dream," Spectacular Sketch by Comus Comedy Players.

The ever-popular Comus Players will present at the Colonial theatre today an entire change of program, which will include brand new songs for everybody, conversational bits, operatic offerings, and sketches both of dramatic and humorous nature. Perof dramatic and humorous nature. Perhaps the strongest dramatic feature is the sketch entitled The Artist's Dream, a playlet so full of life, snap and action that one forgets that it is being presented by a cast of six people instead of a cast of larger proportions. Another playlet of equal importance is entitled The Mayor and the Boss, a sketch in which the unknown side of up-to-date politics is presented in its true light. The balance of the program is given over to a diversified musical bill in which figures the sensational and stirring musical novelty sational and stirring musical novelty entitled The Telephone Tangle, in which crossed wires play havoc with the love and domestic affairs of several couples. Curry and Graham appear in a little oddity in which they sing They Didn't Believe Me, an interpolated number from The Girl from Utah. Skinner's Chicken Dinner, the latter being the big finale of the bill. As usual, fine motion pictures will be presented at each show.

CHINA'S PRESIDENT ISSUES MANDATE TO STATES.

About Change to Monarchy and Accession to Throne.

New York, Dec. 15.—The Far East-ern Eureau has received the following cable from Peking: 'A presidential mandate just issued

"The acting Li Fa Yuan (China's temuorary parliament) representing the national citizens representative convention, has enumerated six rea-sons why I should not refuse their re-quest and has again presented the peoples offer and pressed me further to ascend the throne. It should be un-derstood that my patriotism is as strong as that of any others. But now the citizens demand is so pressing and their expectation so keen that it is impossible for me to excuse myself and shirk the responsibility which has de-volved upon my shoulders. Still, in

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE

A PRETTY FROCK FOR THE LITTLE MISS. Girl's Dress With Single or Double Skirt and With Sleeve in Either of

Two Lengths. Blue crepe de chine with "val" insertion and edging would be nice for this model. White batiste with embroidery, challie with pipings of matched china silk, crepe with feather stitching or embroidery, either or all of these may be used for this charming little design. For a school dress, checked gingham could be combined with chambrey. For warmth, plaid suiting with serge or cashmere. The dress may be finished with single or double skirt, and with or without the suspenders. The pattern is cut in four sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. It requires 4 1-4 yards of 36-inch material for the dress with double skirt and 3 1-2 yards with single skirt for an 8year size.
